

Dickson Gallery at Carolina Avenue

Story & photos by Amy Silver

The Dickson Gallery and Carolina Avenue joined up in a unique partnership to present Jackson with something a bit different. Now, when you go for a service at Carolina Avenue, you'll also be treated to beautiful art. That's because the two area businesses have decided to team up! Dickson Gallery has put a wide variety of their art on display at Carolina Avenue, all available for purchase. The art is changed frequently, which makes it exciting each time you return for a visit at Carolina Avenue!

To kick off this exciting combination, the two businesses threw a wine and cheese reception held at Carolina Avenue. Everyone was invited to the event for the viewing, and to get a glimpse of the salon, as well as the art. It was a great way to see this exciting new venture in our area!
